ADDENDUM

A. As used herein, "document" includes any written, recorded, or graphic matter however produced or reproduced, including but not limited to, correspondence, memoranda, records, papers, pictures, reports, summaries, studies, minutes, agenda, bulletins, notices, permits, announcements, amendments, instructions, charts, manuals, schedules, price lists, drawings of diagrams, notes, analyses, telegrams, agreements, printed matter, any other writings of every nature whether inscribed by hand or by some mechanical, electronic, photographic or other means, in the possession, custody or control of your officers, directors, employees, agents, representatives, successors or successors in interest, co-workers or colleagues of the party. The word document means the original, but if the original is not in the possession, custody, or control of the persons listed above, it means a copy. All copies of documents containing any alterations, notes, comments, or other material not included in the originals or copies referred to above shall be deemed separate documents from such originals or copies.

B. The terms, "you" and "your" when used herein refer also to a corporation and each of its divisions and subsidiaries.

C. The term "identify" when used herein in connection with natural persons means to state their full name, titles and job descriptions, if applicable, and their present business and home addresses.

D. The term "identify" when used herein in connection with corporate entities means to state the corporate name and date and place of incorporation and each of its present business addresses.

E. The term "identify" when used herein in connection with documents means to describe the documents setting forth their dates, titles, authors, addresses, parties and the substance thereof, with such reasonable particularity as is sufficient for a specific demand for production. Documents to be identified shall include both documents in the possession, custody and control of the party and all other documents of which the party has knowledge.

F. The term "identify" when used herein in connection with oral statements and communications means to describe the statements and communications by (i) stating when and where they were made; (ii) identify each of the makers and recipients thereof in addition to all other persons present; (iii) indicating the medium of communication; and (iv) stating their substance.

G. When directed to any party, interrogatories and/or a requests for production of documents, depending on what the actual discovery request is are intended to and shall embrace and include in addition to the party, all agents, servants, employees, representatives, private investigators or others who are in possession of or who may have obtained information for or on behalf of said party.

H. The interrogatories, and requests for production of documents shall be considered continuing and supplemental answers shall be required immediately upon the receipt of information by the party.
